We are looking for two enthusiastic and committed Volunteer Midday Supervisors to join our growing team. Please note this role is term time only.

Our candidate:

You are an energetic and highly motivated practitioner, ready to be a key member of our lunchtime team. You will effectively ensure school lunches are served and cleared away. You will also be responsible for supervising play times and interacting with children to enrich their experiences of school. You will be a good team player and able to work independently, using your initiative. You have experience and passion for working in a primary school setting and you are committed to excellence, inclusion and challenge. You have excellent communication skills and display relentless enthusiasm for striving for the very best. You are excited by the rewards and challenges working in a school affords, and welcome the opportunity to really make your mark!

Our school:

Halley House School is a Free School that opened in Arcola Street, Dalston in September 2015. The school is one of seven free schools established by Bellevue Place Education Trust. We believe in having rightfully high expectations and standards for every pupil, and by working actively in partnership with our children, staff, parents and local community, we will support and guide our pupils to reach their full potential academically, socially and emotionally. Halley House is a school that enables its pupils to take confidence from, and enjoyment in, everything they do, and places them at the heart of a vibrant, thriving school community. We pride ourselves on a dynamic and engaging curriculum and are always looking for ways to provide further enrichment to our children's experiences of school life.
