

BPET Modern Slavery Statement

Signed:
Chair of Trust Board:	Claire Delaney
Approved:	1 September 2023
Renewal:	2 Years
Review Date:	September 2025

Bellevue Place Education Trust – Our commitment

Learn. Enjoy. Succeed.

Every BPET child and staff member enjoys a broad (LEARN) and enriched (ENJOY) learning experience, enabling them to achieve far greater individual success (SUCCEED) than they might previously have thought possible.

Our Mission

To grow hubs of like-minded, autonomous schools with a strong support network, all of which combine academic rigour with highly enriched opportunities that deliver a personalised approach to education and exceptional outcomes for all.

Our Difference

We are leading the way in delivering high quality education through skills-based and knowledge rich curricula, applying the best of the independent and state sectors to deliver breadth of opportunity and pupil enrichment. We empower all our schools as individual entities that best meet the needs of the communities they serve and have a strong relationship with families, who are our key partners in delivering the vision.

Our Promise

Every child is an individual. Our role is to nurture pupils' potential through a personalised approach to learning. BPET children are happy, independent, confident all-rounders. Our focus is ensuring an exceptional provision for all our children with supportive, accessible learning that enables every child to make progress, including high quality inclusion for children with Special Educational Needs. We encourage a 'be interested and be interesting' attitude in children and staff alike. We don't just teach; we want our pupils to have a passion to learn.

Modern Slavery Act Statement

Modern Slavery is a crime and a violation of human rights.

The Modern Slavery Act 2015 applies to all organisations, whatever the sector, which supply goods or services and which carry on a business or part of a business in the United Kingdom and whose global turnover exceeds £36 million. The Act requires such organisations to publish an annual slavery statement on their website.

As a provider of education to multiple schools, Bellevue Place Education Trust is committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.

Bellevue Place Education Trust

BPET is a multi-academy trust with ten schools in London and Berkshire providing education for primary school pupils. We employ over 500 teachers and support staff across our ten locations and have ambitions to grow the size of the organisation in the coming years.

Supplier adherence

As an education provider, some services are outsourced to third party suppliers. In 2023, the BPET Board approved this Modern Slavery Act Statement, and we will ensure that going forward our tendering process and 'New Supplier' form requests that all suppliers adhere to the Modern Slavery Act.

Should a supplier's compliance with the Act be demonstrated to be unsatisfactory, we will review our continued relationship with that supplier to ensure BPET's confirmed adherence with the act.

We are committed to investigating any allegations of modern slavery or human trafficking, whether in our own organisation or in our outsourced suppliers, and our Whistleblowing Policy has been reviewed to include reference to the Act.

We will continue to seriously investigate suppliers as to their avoidance of modern slavery and human trafficking.

Monitoring and Evaluation

The Headteacher and BPET will review this policy statement biennially and update it in consultation with key staff, in line with current best practice as s/he considers necessary.

Mark Greatrex
Chief Executive
Bellevue Place Education Trust

Approved by the BPET Board in 2023